

K-Love is a breath of fresh air in a world of communication garbage/no morals. K-Love is the only station I listen to or even wish to have on. K-Love is life giving in the guidance and strength it generates through its music format and information sections.